

PWHL ARTIFACTS DONATED TO HOCKEY HALL OF FAME

The Hockey Hall of Fame kicked off the 2024 NHL All-Star weekend by showcasing items donated from the Professional Women's Hockey League

The following items from the inaugural PWHL season are now showcased in the "Women's Hockey - Celebrating Excellence" exhibit at the Hockey Hall of Fame. Ella Shelton (PWHL New York) dropped by with the historic stick and puck used in the first-ever PWHL All-Star game on February 1, 2024. It's notable that Shelton scored the first regular season goal in league history, as well, the first PWHL All-Star game goal.

Donated items from the first PWHL game (January 1, 2024):

- 1st PWHL game (Toronto/New York) - 1st face off puck
- All four goal pucks (New York)
- Ella Shelton (New York) stick - 1st PWHL goal, 1st game winning goal
- Corrine Schroeder (New York) goalie stick - 1st PWHL shutout

Donated items from the first-ever PWHL All-Star game (February 1, 2024):

- Ella Shelton (New York) stick and puck - 1st PWHL All-Star game goal

"To come to the Hockey Hall of Fame and see the Women's exhibit has been so incredible. To view all the history behind the Women's game has been very emotional. I can't thank all these women enough for their dedication and hard work. To be a part of this history is something I will never forget."

Ella Shelton, PWHL New York

For further information:

Kelly Masse

Director, Corporate and Media Relations

Hockey Hall of Fame

(416) 933-8212

kmasse@hhof.com

@kellyhockeyhall